ECF CASE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

ST SHIPPING AND TRANSPORT INC.,

Plaintiff,

-against-

GOLDEN FLEECE MARITIME INC.,

Defendant.

07 Civ. 11147 (SAS)

AFFIDAVIT IN OPPOSITION TO MOTIONS TO VACATE
MARITIME ATTACHMENT
AND DISMISS COMPLAINT

STATE OF NEW YORK)

: ss:

COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

JOHN R. FOSTER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a member of the Bar of this Court and am an officer of Waesche, Sheinbaum & O'Regan, P.C., attorneys for the Plaintiff herein. I submit this affidavit in opposition to the pending motions by a) Defendant Golden Fleece Maritime Inc. to dismiss the Complaint, and b) non-party Blanca Shipmanagement Co. to vacate the attachment of funds at Citibank.

THE PRESENT ATTACHMENT

2. Pursuant to the Court's Order of December 21, 2007, the Clerk issued Process of Maritime Attachment and Garnishment ("PMAG"). A true copy of the December 21 Order is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. A true copy of the PMAG is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

3. On January 9, 2008, Michael Griffin of my office served copies of the December 21 Order and the PMAG by hand on Citibank. Thereafter, daily supplemental service was made on Citibank by email pursuant to the procedures established by the Bank.

4. On January 18 and 30, and March 17, 2008, I received emails from Citibank. In these messages the Bank advised that, in response to the PMAG, Citibank had blocked three wire transfers described as destined for Golden Fleece Maritime in Athens. The total amounts of these transfers was $380,000. Attached as Exhibit 3 are true copies of the emails from Citibank confirming the blocking of these three transfers.

THE ACTION BEFORE JUDGE COTE

5. In May 2007 my firm started an action captioned ST Shipping and Transport Inc. v. Golden Fleece Maritime Inc., 07 Civ. 3730 (DLC). That action concerned ST Shipping's claim against Golden Fleece for failure to maintain the vessel Elli in accordance with international pollution regulations. A copy of the complaint is Exhibit A to Blanca/Golden Fleece's Memorandum of Law.

6. Judge Cote signed a Rule B attachment order, and my office made both initial and daily supplemental service of process on various local banks. Unfortunately, no funds were attached.

7. On July 30, 2007, Mr. Edward Mills-Webb in London advised me that ST Shipping had won the litigation in London and that the court there had entered judgment in ST Shipping's favor.

8. It is my practice to advise Chambers whenever a case is over, e.g., the parties have settled. In this case, according to my records, I telephoned Judge Cote's Chambers on August 20, 2007, and advised that the case was being dismissed.

9. On August 22, 2007 I filed with the Court, pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. 41 a Notice of Voluntary Dismissal. A true copy of that Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

10. In my view, my filing of that Notice terminated the action before Judge Cote. Consequently, when I started the action concerning Golden Fleece's breach of performance warranties, I did not consider the earlier action to pending such that it needed to be identified as a related open matter.

11. I have no idea why Judge Cote "So Ordered" the Notice in May 2008. There had been absolutely no activity of any sort, such as a call from Chambers, between my filing of the Notice and her endorsement.

BLANCA'S TRUST ARGUMENT

12. Shipping fleets are often organized like taxi fleets, i.e., each vessel is owned by a separate company. The reason is the same in both cases: to limit any liability to the value of that one asset.

13. The Elli is part of a fleet of about a dozen vessels "operated" by Liquimar Tanker Management Inc. in Athens, Greece, with each vessel owned by a separate company. Attached as Exhibit 5 are the pages from Liquimar's website listing its vessels, and particularly the Elli. These pages were printed earlier today.

14. A directory of the world's ships is published by Lloyd's Register in London. In the current edition, for the year 2007-8, the directory lists only one ship for Golden Fleece, the Elli, with Golden Fleece being listed under the broader heading for Liquimar.

Attached as Exhibit 6 is the directory listing for Golden Fleece and Liquimar. There is no listing at all for Blanca.

15. Finally, it should be noted that at the May 28 conference with the Court, counsel for Golden Fleece/Blanca made no mention of any trust arrangement pertaining to the attached funds. What counsel said to the Court was that "At the closing there were some hang ups in the closing, and apparently they entered a side agreement saying any future payments of hire relating to this vessel, even if made to my client, are assigned derivatively to the buyer, and those are the payments that have been attached to date." Transcript of 5/28/08 Conference, at 7-8 (emphasis added). A true copy of this transcript portion is attached as Exhibit 7. Counsel's description of the transaction as an assignment, and not as a trust transfer, is therefore consistent with the view expressed in the declaration of Mr Edward Mills-Webb and contrary to that expressed by Mr Duncan McDonald.

assume that there's no objection to the substance of the order,
2 why don't I just submit a clean copy to chambers?

THE COURT: Fine. When will that come?

3 MR. FOSTER: I can do it later today or tomorrow morning, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Fine, I am going to sign it. Okay.

5 MR. FOSTER: Thank you very much, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Is there anything else that you have to
7 talk about in this case?

8 MR. LENNON: Yes, I think the last status letter that 9 Mr. Foster put in jointly on both of our behalves putting the 10 case on the suspense docket also mentioned the fact that I'm
11 being retained by a third party that claims to own the funds
12 that have already been attached.

13 By way of background to that, there's many ways we can
14 go about --

15 THE COURT: You're not appearing for Golden Fleece?

16 MR. LENNON: I do represent Golden Fleece, but the 17 background to the involvement of the third party is pretty
18 simple.

19 THE COURT: Background to what?

20 MR. LENNON: The third party that I will also be 21 representing who is claiming that they own these funds that
22 Mr. Foster's clients attached. It's quite simple. The vessel
23 that we're talking about was sold by my clients to this third

24 SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

1 85STSTSC Conference
2 party in Hong Kong. At the closing there were some hang ups in
3 the closing, and apparently they entered a side agreement
4 saying any future payments of hire relating to this vessel,
5 even if made to my client, are assigned derivatively to the
6 buyer, and those are the payments that have been attached to
7 date. So they'll come in and claim ownership to these funds
8 even though my client's name appeared in these transfer orders
9 for the electronic transfer funds.

10 THE COURT: But if you win on behalf of this third-
11 party client then your other client would be subject to having 12 other funds attached. It sounds like a bit of a conflict to 13 me.

14 MR. LENNON: Not really.

15 THE COURT: You say that, but basically one client's
16 gain is in some sense another client's loss because right now
17 the Golden Fleece -- let's say there has been no change in the 18 amount to be attached. The Golden Fleece client's money, so to 19 speak, would be fully attached and therefore secured, nothing
20 further would be attached. But if you win this thing, now the 21 next wire fund traveling through New York could get attached,
22 which is to your client's detriment. So it sounds like you
23 have a conflict.

24 MR. LENNON: But my client can't in good faith benefit
25 from the use of someone else's money to secure a claim against 26 them.
